FORMER JACKSON COUNTY DOCTOR A MARTYR TO TUBERCULOSIS.

New York Journal Places Him Among Martyrs To Human Welfare.

The recent death of Dr. Jonathan Bailey Rogers focuses attention upon the life of a man who literally gave himself for the life of others.

Doctor Rogers died at the young age of thirty-six. His struggle to get a medical education should be an inspiration to other young men who strive for self-advancement. The same pluck, determination and self-sacrifice that carried him through the adversities of making his way through college and medical school helped him later on when he became an expert in tuberculosis laboratory research. These qualities also inspired him to risk everything, even his health, in an endeavor to demonstrate the scientific truth or untruth of studies that he was pursuing.

About four years ago he became interested in experimental tuberculosis infection by inhalation. His investigations involved the spraying of guinea pigs with moist sputum. Several months after he began this work in 1919, he fell ill with pulmonary tuberculosis. His physicians believed that his illness was due directly to the exposure to infection to which he had subjected himself by these experiments. It is known that a physical examination a few years earlier had disclosed no clinical tuberculosis in him. His illness brought out his real strength of character, however. The last three years of his life were his most productive periods. He worked in his laboratory so long that he had to be carried from his desk. The night he died he asked that his autopsy records be brought to him so that he might review and study the cases.

He was a martyr to human welfare and to the advancement of public health. All honor to Jonathan Bailey Rogers.

GREEKS AGREE TO EVACUATE THRACE

MUDANIA ARMISTICE ACCEPTED BY ATHENS GOVERNMENT.

ITALIAN TROOPS MARCH IN

Under Terms of Agreement Allied Troops Will Occupy Territory for Thirty Days—War Sentiment Greatly Modified.

London.—British officials are confident the Mudania armistice will be come effective without a hitch. The foreign office issued a communique in which it was stated that it was clear the Kemalists do not intend to violate the neutral zone.

Constantinople.—The formal acceptance by the Greeks of the Mudania armistice agreement was transmitted to all the signatory powers by George Simopoulos, the Greek high commissioner in Constantinople.

Constantinople.—First allied military steps to bring the Crescent back to Europe amid almost as much glory as the Turks enjoyed for many decades prior to the World War, have begun. The Greeks signed the Mudania protocol and evacuated an initial sector in Eastern Thrace in compliance with terms of the near eastern armistice.

As the Greeks, crushed by the Kemal Nationalists, moved out, Italian troops marched in. This is in accordance with the agreement that allied troops are to occupy the territory for 30 days before Turkish authorities take it over.

Adrianople, Thrace.—Evacuation of the Greek troops from Eastern Thrace under the terms of the armistice signed by the allied powers and the Turkish Nationalists at Mudania has started in accordance with a formal order issued by the Greek military headquarters here.

The sentiment in favor of resistance has been largely modified by the announcement of the pending arrival of 5000 allied troops as the Greeks obviously are unwilling to oppose the allies although they might have made a determined stand against Turkish soldiers.

DRY SHIPS ARE DESERTED.

Many Cancel Passage on American Vessels.

New York.—Heavy cancellation of passage on American ships sailing under new "dry" regulations were officially reported as steamship companies mobilized legal forces to fight the Daugherty order.

Frank P. Munson, head of the Munson Line, announced that 75 passages were cancelled on the shipping board liner Pan-American, which sailed for Rio de Janeiro and Buenos Aires. Twenty-five passages were cancelled on the United States Line steamship President Roosevelt, which sailed for Europe with the smallest passenger list of record for a vessel of its type.
